

SAINT ELIZABETH OF HUNGARY
(1207 -1231)
Patroness of the Franciscan Third Order
Feast Day – November 17th

In her short life Elizabeth manifested such great love for the poor and suffering that she has become the patroness of Catholic charities and of the Secular Franciscan Order. Elizabeth chose a life of penance and asceticism when a life of leisure and luxury could easily have been hers. This choice endeared her in the hearts of the common people throughout Europe.

At the age of 14 Elizabeth was married to Louis of Thuringia (a German principality), whom she deeply loved; she bore three children. Under the spiritual direction of a Franciscan friar, she led a life of prayer, sacrifice and service to the poor and sick. Seeking to become one with the poor, she wore simple clothing. Daily she would take bread to hundreds of the poorest in the land, who came to her gate.

Finally her husband died in the Crusades, and Elizabeth was grief-stricken. Her husband's family mistreated her, finally throwing her out of the palace. The return of her husband's allies from the Crusades resulted in her being reinstated, since her son was legal heir to the throne.

In 1228, Elizabeth joined the Secular Franciscan Order, spending the remaining few years of her life caring for the poor in a hospital which she founded in honor of St. Francis. Elizabeth's health declined, and she died before her 24th birthday in 1231. Her great popularity resulted in her canonization four years later

The month of November is dedicated to praying for the souls in purgatory. What is purgatory? The Catechism of the Catholic Church defines purgatory as a "Purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven," which is experienced by those "who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified" (CCC 1030). In other words, go to confession as soon and as often as you can!

Weekend Collection
Reg. Collection - $3,254.00
Thank you for your continued support and generosity.

Second Collection Next Weekend - Catholic Campaign for Human Development

Next weekend we will have a second collection for the "Catholic Campaign for Human Development." Thank you for your continued support.
