

BLESSED MIGUEL AGUSTIN PRO, S.J.
1891 - 1927
Feast day - November 23rd

Miguel Pro was born January 13, 1891, at Guadalupe Zacatecas, Mexico. The loving and devoted son of a mining engineer and a pious and charitable mother, Miguel had a special affinity for the working classes which he retained all his life.

At 20, he became a Jesuit novice and was exiled because of the Mexican revolution. He traveled to the United States, Spain, Nicaragua and Belgium, where he was ordained in 1925. Father Pro suffered greatly from a severe stomach problem and when, after several operations his health did not improve, in 1926 his superiors allowed him to return to Mexico in spite of the religious persecution there.

The churches were closed and priests were in hiding. Father Pro spent the rest of his life in a secret ministry to the sturdy Mexican Catholics. He also carried out works of mercy by assisting the poor of Mexico City with their temporal needs. He adopted many disguises to carry out his secret ministry. In all that he did, he remained filled with the joy of serving Christ, his King, and obedient to his superiors.

Father Pro performed his ministry heroically until November 23, 1927. He was caught and, without a trial, condemned for being a Catholic priest. As he faced the firing squad, he stretched out his arms until his whole body was a living cross. Then he called out in a loud voice: "¡Viva Cristo Rey!" (Long live Christ the King!)
