

SAINT STEPHEN
(5 AD – 34 AD)
Patron Saint of Deacons and Stonemasons
Feast day - December 26th

St. Stephen's name means "crown," and he was the first disciple of Jesus to receive the martyr's crown. The apostles ordained seven deacons as needed helpers to look after the care of the widows and the poor, and Stephen is the most famous of these. St. Stephen spoke with such wisdom and grace that many of his hearers became followers of Jesus. His teachings aroused the enmity of members of various synagogues. Accused of blasphemy at his trial he made a long speech fiercely denouncing the Jewish authorities who were sitting in judgment on him. The saint spoke about Jesus, showing that He is the Savior God had promised to send. He scolded his enemies for not having believed in Jesus. At that, they rose up in great anger. But Stephen looked up to heaven and said that he saw the heavens opening and Jesus standing at the right hand of God. They dragged St. Stephen outside the city of Jerusalem and stoned him to death. The saint prayed, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit!" Then he fell to his knees and begged God not to punish his enemies for killing him. His martyrdom was witnessed by Saul of Tarsus (later renamed Paul), a Pharisee who would later convert to Christianity and become an apostle. Traditionally, Stephen is invested with a crown of martyrdom; he is often depicted in art with three stones and the martyr's palm.
