Summary: God calls us to seek wisdom and live with hope. We stay ready for Him by keeping our faith strong.
Challenge: Pay attention to how you are living each day. Make choices that help you stay close to God and ready to follow Him.
Action Step: Set aside a few quiet minutes to pray and ask God for wisdom.
Verse to Remember: "Stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour." (Matthew 25:13)

Stay Awake and Ready

The 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A reminds us to stay alert and live with faith. The readings speak about wisdom, hope, and being prepared for what is to come. They teach us that following God means paying attention and being ready to meet Him at any moment.

In the first reading, Wisdom is described as bright and near to those who seek her. God's wisdom helps us make good choices and live with peace. The psalm tells of a deep thirst for God, showing how we find joy when we stay close to Him.

Saint Paul speaks of hope for those who have died. He tells us that Jesus will return, and we will be together with Him. The Gospel story of the ten virgins warns that we must be ready, like the wise ones who had oil for their lamps.

The 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A calls us to live wisely and watchfully. We do not know when the Lord will come, but if we keep our faith strong, we will be ready to welcome Him with joy.

First Reading – Wisdom 6:12-16: Wisdom is radiant and doesn't fade, easily found by those who seek her. She eagerly meets those who watch for her and brings freedom from worry to the worthy.

Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 63: I seek and thirst for God, finding greater good in His kindness than in life itself. I find satisfaction and joy in meditating on Him and calling upon His name.

Second Reading – 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 OR 4:13-14: Don't grieve without hope for those who've died. If we believe in Jesus' resurrection, the dead will also rise. At Jesus' return, both the dead and living will meet Him.

Gospel – Matthew 25:1-13: Jesus shares a parable about ten virgins waiting for a bridegroom. Five are wise and bring extra oil, while five are foolish and don't. When the bridegroom arrives, only the wise ones can join him in the wedding feast, as they are prepared. The message stresses readiness and vigilance.

A Call for Eucharistic Ministers

As you are aware, our church is in great need for more parishioners to find it in their heart to join this critical ministry. Through Baptism and Confirmation, you share in the common priesthood of the faithful. In this ministry, you bring the Risen Lord to the people of God, witnessing to the real presence and inviting them into the banquet of Christ. This is a sacred trust that calls for humility, prayer, and constant awareness of the mystery you are handling. You are not just handing out bread and wine — you are holding and sharing the very presence of Christ. "God of Love and Mercy, with reverence and humility I desire to approach the Eucharist and this ministry. Grant me the grace to help others encounter You in this sacrament. Amen"
